

2013 Allen/Quilceda Watershed Earth Day Celebration

Saturday, April 20th – 10am-2pm
Harborview Park – 4700 60th Ave. NE, Marysville

Plant a native tree or shrub and spread mulch to protect new plantings.

Interactive and educational booths, interpretive tours and face painting!

- All ages welcome.
- Come for all or part of the celebration.
- Tools, gloves, water & snacks provided.
- Wear sturdy boots or shoes.
- Dress for the weather - rain or shine!

Help restore
Qwuloolt Estuary,
Register Today!

To register contact: Erin Martin 425-388-3464 x466 | erin.martin@snoco.org For directions and more information, visit www.marysvillewa.gov/earthday (TTY: 711 or WA Relay Center at 800-833-6388). Translation services and accommodations for persons with disabilities are available upon request

FREE T-shirt to first 200 participants!

Design your shirt with watershed themed stamps
from each booth.

aqwa team
Allen / Quilceda Watershed Action Team

Snohomish County
Public Works
Surface Water Management

Working together for people,
streams
& fish.

Scan me!

